

Yes in my backyard: Ensuring housing supply for Arizona's future

Join Home Arizona and the W. P. Carey School of Business' Center for Real Estate Theory and Practice for a timely discussion with industry experts. Hosted February 22, this in-depth event focuses on housing supply in the Phoenix Metro area — an important social and economic issue with few concrete, scalable solutions. Creating needed inventory is easier said than done. Industry leaders, city staff, and elected officials seeking solutions are welcome to attend.

Wednesday, Feb. 22, 2023

7:30 to 11 a.m.

Lou's Bar & Grill at Papago Golf Club
5595 E. Karsten Way
Phoenix, AZ 85008

Moderated by Nico Howard and Mark Stapp

Speakers and panelists include Elliot Pollack, Alan Stephenson, John Graham, Paul Johnson, and others.

W. P. Carey and Home Arizona Housing Symposium

The Center for Real Estate Theory and Practice provides research and experience-based knowledge to address contemporary challenges in the real estate industry. Our faculty members are highly regarded in the field of commercial and residential real estate development and investment. Their collaboration and vision have contributed to international real estate projects that emphasize ethical and responsible development and enhance community value and vibrancy.

Breakfast and networking from 7:30 to 8 a.m. Learn more and RSVP:

wpcarey.asu.edu/my-backyard